This is a great early season opportunity to sharpen your lacrosse skills and get in shape for the beginning of the season.

Registration is open to all level of players – beginners and advanced players will benefit from this clinic. Instruction will include stick development, shooting techniques, situation drills, fast break and man up and man down action. Players should bring all equipment and mouth guard. The clinics will be held on the lower game fields near the entrance to the school. Players should bring cleats and tennis shoes in case the clinic is moved to the school gymnasiums because of bad weather.

Pre-registration is encouraged and walk-up registration is accepted. Additional registration forms can be obtained from local lacrosse stores, Kent Denver School (303-770-7660) or online at laxworldcolorado.com or coloradolacrosse.org.

For more information you may call Coach Tom Graesser, 303-770-7660, Ext. 295, or e-mail to tgraesser@kentdenver.org.
